MA English

Highlights

- ◆ A structured open and distance learning format that helps learners pursue English literature, language, and communication with continuity and manageable academic progress.
- ◆ Subject areas such as literary criticism, poetry and prose, language studies, and writing skills make the course relevant to learners comparing similar programmes.
- ◆ Designed to strengthen both conceptual understanding and communication in discipline-specific contexts.
- ◆ Focuses on practical interpretation, case-based thinking, and problem-solving linked to texts, contexts, genres, and communication situations.
- ◆ Supports academic progression and career exploration across Lecturer / Assistant Professor, Content Writer / Editor, and Translator and related teaching, content, editing, communication, research, and humanities pathways without making unsupported placement claims, with added focus on case-based thinking.

Learning outcomes

- ◆ Apply subject knowledge to solve interpretation, argument-building, language analysis, and writing challenges with greater structure and clarity.
- ◆ Evaluate critical interpretations based on textual evidence, context, and theory while considering clarity, nuance, originality, and critical depth.
- ◆ Create or present essays, critiques, presentations, and polished written communication with clear structure and practical relevance.
- ◆ Build readiness for progression in Lecturer / Assistant Professor, Content Writer / Editor, and Translator and related teaching, content, editing, communication, research, and humanities pathways through stronger subject understanding and applied thinking, while strengthening case-based thinking.
- ◆ Develop advanced knowledge of English literature and literary theory and apply research methods to literary and cultural studies.
