JAIN (Deemed-to-be University)

JAIN (Deemed-to-be University), based in Bengaluru, is a leading institution committed to academic excellence, innovation and holistic development. The University offers diverse programs across engineering, management, commerce, sciences, humanities, design and other disciplines. With a strong emphasis on research, entrepreneurship, sports and industry-focused education, it prepares students for evolving global opportunities. Its vibrant campuses bring together learners and faculty from diverse cultural and academic backgrounds. Through classroom, online and open-distance learning, JAIN provides accessible and future-ready education that empowers students to make a meaningful impact.

MSW - WLP

Highlights

- ◆ Digital-first academic learning supported by structured work-linked or internship-style exposure.
- ◆ Curriculum themes such as case work, community organisation, social welfare, and counselling basics make the programme relevant to social work, community development, and human services and its practical use.
- ◆ Helps learners observe how classroom concepts appear in communities, vulnerable groups, social programmes, and human service settings and everyday organizational tasks.
- ◆ Builds confidence in time management, communication, and applied problem-solving alongside formal study.
- ◆ Useful for learners who want both a recognized academic pathway and early practical orientation in Case Worker, Rehabilitation Counsellor, and Outreach Worker and related NGOs, CSR, community development, counselling support, welfare administration, and social research, with added focus on project-based reflection.

Learning outcomes

- ◆ Within MSW - WLP from JAIN (Deemed-to-be University), examine communities, vulnerable groups, social programmes, and human service settings through the lens of case work, community organisation, social welfare, and counselling basics.
- ◆ Use relevant tools, theories, or frameworks to address community needs, social intervention, advocacy, and welfare delivery challenges.
- ◆ Compare options and make reasoned judgements about practice decisions grounded in ethics, empathy, evidence, and social justice.
- ◆ Prepare case notes, community plans, intervention reports, and reflective practice records with clarity, evidence, and subject-specific vocabulary.
- ◆ Translate classroom concepts into workplace-ready responses for tasks related to Case Worker, Rehabilitation Counsellor, and Outreach Worker and related NGOs, CSR, community development, counselling support, welfare administration, and social research, while strengthening project-based reflection.
