BA - WLP

Highlights

- ◆ Digital-first academic learning supported by structured work-linked or internship-style exposure.
- ◆ Curriculum themes such as General English – 1, Telugu/Hindi/Sanskrit – 1/Sp. English-1, critical reading, and communication make the programme relevant to humanities, social sciences, and liberal education and its practical use.
- ◆ Helps learners observe how classroom concepts appear in texts, society, culture, policy, and everyday human experiences and everyday organizational tasks.
- ◆ Builds confidence in time management, communication, and applied problem-solving alongside formal study.
- ◆ Useful for learners who want both a recognized academic pathway and early practical orientation in civil services preparation, content, education, research, public policy, and communication roles, with added focus on professional communication.

Learning outcomes

- ◆ Within BA - WLP from Andhra University, map important concepts in humanities, social sciences, and liberal education to real or case-based situations involving texts, society, culture, policy, and everyday human experiences.
- ◆ Apply analytical thinking to manage interpretation, communication, research, and social-analysis challenges in a disciplined way.
- ◆ Evaluate information before making conclusions about arguments and interpretations using evidence, context, and multiple perspectives.
- ◆ Design or present essays, presentations, research notes, and reflective analyses that show both knowledge and practical relevance.
- ◆ Observe how General English – 1, Telugu/Hindi/Sanskrit – 1/Sp. English-1, critical reading, and communication appear in practical settings and use that exposure to build employability awareness, while strengthening professional communication.
